GATORS LINK TO PINK

The University of Florida and the Gators will again host a Breast Cancer Awareness meet, with this season's date set for Feb. 10, 2012 versus LSU. Join the Gators for the 2012 Link to Pink meet and show your support for the fight against breast cancer.

Florida fans caused a buzz with their debut of the Gator "Big Heads" at the 2011 Southeastern Conference Championships.

MEDIA COVERAGE

From the tip of the Panhandle and down through Miami, the University of Florida athletic program attracts statewide interest from newspapers, magazines, television, websites and radio stations. UF holds its fair share of the national spotlight too, as media outlets such as ESPN, USA Today and Sports Illustrated track the progress of not only the nationally ranked football team, but also the careers of the many Gator world-class athletes. Locally, more than dozen media outlets regularly cover the Gators. In addition to daily coverage from the local media, many of the state's larger papers such as the Orlando Sentinel, Palm Beach Post and the St. Petersburg Times employ beat writers who live in Gainesville year-round for the sole purpose of covering Gator teams. The UF Communications Department also helps student-athletes' hometown media follow the careers of Gators from their area.

ESPN AND THE SEC: BRING CONFERENCE ACTION TO THE NATION

The unprecedented contract between the Southeastern Conference and ESPN is now in its third season. As part of the contact, ESPN2 will air the SEC Gymnastics Championships. The contract also calls for ESPNU to air 25 additional SEC regular-season events. This includes two regular-season meets featuring Florida – versus Arkansas on Jan. 27 and versus LSU on Feb. 10. This is the 13th consecutive season Florida gymnastics has made at least one appearance on an ESPN channel. This contract is set to run for 15 seasons, giving the conference unprecedented national exposure on the ESPN channels.

The league's regional television package will air four additional dual meets featuring the Gators – Jan. 20 at Kentucky, Feb. 24 versus Georgia (both on Fox Sports Net) and Feb. 3 at Alabama and Feb. 17 at Auburn (both on Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast). Florida is one of two league teams to have every meet of their SEC schedule scheduled to air on either an ESPN channel or as part of the regional television package.

Sun Sports Network, which reaches 99 percent of Florida's cable homes, will air more than 100 UF events during the 2011-12 academic year. Included are two Gator meets – the Jan. 13 season opener versus Illinois-Chicago and the regular-season home finale versus perennial power Utah on March 16.

In December of 2011, ESPN and NCAA announced an agreement to extend rights through the 2023-24 season. In this agreement, additional NCAA Championship events were added to the ESPN networks, including NCAA Gymnastics. ESPNU will cover the 2012 NCAA Championships, set for April 20-22 in the Gwinett Center in Duluth, Ga., on a tape-delayed basis.

The impact Rhonda Faehn's made on the University of Florida gymnastics program is undeniable. In her nine years as the Gators' head coach, the program has:

- Claimed six top-five NCAA Championship finishes
- Won the 2007 and 2010 Southeastern Conference team titles
- Claimed six consecutive NCAA Region team titles
- Established the top-10 team scores in school history and each team event record

When she accepted the Florida head coaching position in the late spring of 2002, Faehn (pronounced FAIN) saw a program with the potential to firmly establish itself among the nation's elite. She's made that vision a reality, as the Gators perform an exciting and high-level of gymnastics that consistently competes with the nation's best and brings new fans to the O'Connell Center.

Six top-five NCAA finishes have been turned in by Faehn-led Gator teams, which include equaling the program's second-highest NCAA finish by placing third in the 2007 NCAA Super Six competition. Florida made its first NCAA Super Six appearance in six seasons at the 2004 national championships, where the Gators took fifth overall. UF returned to the Super Six again in 2006, taking fourth. In 2007, Florida won the SEC team title - the sixth in the program's history, but its first since 1989. The Gators repeated as SEC champions again in 2010. Florida advanced to the 2008, 2009 and 2010 NCAA Super Six, taking fourth in 2008 and 2009 and fifth in 2010. The Gators claimed six of their last seven NCAA Region team titles, with their 2005 NCAA Southeast Region title being UF's first since 1997. Four regional titles came on the road - 2006 South Central, 2007 Northeast and 2009 & 2010 North Central Regional crowns. The 2005 and 2008 NCAA Southeast Region titles were claimed in the O'Connell Center.

Under Faehn, 26 UF gymnasts have claimed a total of 84 All-America honors, including Marissa King earning UF's first NCAA event title since 1998 when she won the 2011 vault crown. Gator athletes have earned All-SEC accolades 22 times. In the competitive arena, the Gators registered wins over some of the nation's top teams during the last nine years, including victories over Alabama, Georgia, UCLA and Utah. Faehn also found success on the recruiting trail, as her classes are regarded among the nation's best, including the 2010 and 2011 classes that drew the No. 1 ranking. After leading the 2007 Gator team to the No. 1 position in 11 of the 12 regular-season ranking periods, Faehn was named the National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches (NACGC) Coach of the Year. She is a five-time recipient of the NACGC Southeast Region Gymnastics Coach of the Year. She shared the 2003 honor and was again named the winner in 2005, 2007, 2010 and 2011. Faehn picked up back-to-back SEC Coach of the Year honors in 2006 and 2007 and again in 2010 and 2011.

Faehn took over in May of 2002 as the sixth head coach for the Gator program. She brought experience at the sports' highest level to the Florida program. A member of the 1988 U.S. Olympic Team and an All-American while at UCLA, Faehn coached among the club and collegiate levels for nine years prior to joining UF.

Faehn joined the Florida program after spending four seasons (1999-02) at the University of Nebraska. She served as an assistant coach for the Huskers for three seasons before being elevated to Associate Head Coach in the fall of 2001. Four of the Huskers' five NCAA Super Six appearances were achieved with Faehn on the NU staff and during that time, the team twice posted Super Six finishes of fifth (2001 and '02) and took fourth at the 2000 event. The Cornhuskers also produced two-time NCAA champion Heather Brink during this period, when Brink claimed the NCAA all-around and vault crowns in 2000. Faehn was named the NACGC Assistant Coach of the Year in 2001. She also collected the South Central Assistant Coach of the Year honor in 2002 and shared the 2000 Region 3 Assistant Coach of the Year award. During her stay at NU, 11 athletes earned a total of 21 All-America awards.

She also was an assistant coach at the University of Maryland for the 1997 and '98 seasons. She was named the Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year in 1998 after playing a crucial role in the Terps qualifying for their first Southeast Regional meet in seven seasons. Maryland improved from 11-18 in her first season to 22-18 and a seventh-place Southeast Regional finish in 1998.

Prior to joining Maryland, Faehn was head coach at the Lanco Gymnastics Training Center in Lancaster, Pa., from 1994-96. At Lanco Gymnastics Training Center, Faehn organized a team program for levels four through 10. She was in charge of choreography for the beam and floor exercise and coached the level nine team to a state championship. Faehn has also served as a master staff member and clinician at the Woodward Gymnastics Camp in Woodward, Pa.

During her collegiate career at UCLA (1990-92), Faehn earned All-America second-team honors in both the all-around and balance beam at the 1992 NCAA Championships. She was a member of the 1992 All-Pacific-10 team and shared that season's conference uneven bars title. Faehn began her coaching career as a Bruins' student assistant from 1992-94. She graduated from UCLA in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in history.

Faehn's club gymnastics resume includes competitions at the sport's highest level. Faehn, the first alternate to the 1988 U.S. Olympic team, was a four-year member of the U.S. National Team (1985-88). She is the 1987 and '88 U.S. vault champion, scoring a perfect 10.0 at both the 1988 U.S. Olympic Trials and the 1988 U.S. National Championships. In 1987, she was the highest U.S. finisher at the World Championships, placing 19th in the all-around. Faehn, who trained under world-famous coach Bela Karolyi, was a member of the U.S.'s gold-medal team at the 1987 Pan American Games, where she took eighth in the all-around and fourth in the vault.

In the summer of 2006, Faehn and Jeremy Bayon were married. They have two sons. Noah Émile Bayon was born in January of 2008 and Isaiah Freedom Bayon arrived in November of 2010. The family resides in Gainesville.

"Rhonda was one of my most dedicated and disciplined gymnasts. I enjoyed coaching her as she developed into a world-class gymnast. She has been the national champion on the vault and a member of the U.S. National Team. Rhonda has a high moral standard and is driven by her goals. Those traits she showed as a gymnast are still present today. Rhonda has already proven her expertise and high technical coaching level in her previous positions. I have absolutely no doubt that she will be one of the sport's most successful coaches. She continues to be one of my favorites - I wish her the best of luck."

"Rhonda Faehn possesses all of the qualities necessary to be a successful head coach, including the one I feel the most important, a passionate understanding of the importance of coaching the "person" before the "athlete"."

ASSISTANT COACHES

ADRIAN BURDE
ASSISTANT COACH

Adrian Burde (pronounced bur-DAY) enters his sixth season with the Florida gymnastics program in the fall of 2011. He coaches vault and tumbling, as well as aids in recruiting and team conditioning.

Last year, Burde coached vault and tumbling. Then sophomore Ashanée Dickerson shared the Southeastern Conference floor title and classmate Marissa King claimed the NCAA vault title, becoming the first Gator since 1998 to win an individual crown. Florida led all teams with three advancing to the NCAA floor exercise final. Senior Maranda Smith shared second overall in the final NCAA floor standings. Florida was the nation's top-ranked floor team through the entire 2011 season and No. 1 for vault in eight of the 11 weeks.

Burde coached the Gator uneven bar performers when he joined the program and his impact was evident early, as the 2007 Gators opened the season with the team's then third-highest uneven bars team total ever of 49.575 at the Super Six Challenge. The UF bar record was reset to 49.70 versus Kentucky on Feb. 16. The Gators held the No. 1 position in the national bar rankings for the final nine weeks of the regular season. Florida was again among the national uneven bars leaders in Burde's second season. Florida's total of 49.625 set in the Gators' Link to Pink meet was the nation's highest uneven bars total of the 2008 season and ranks third all-time for the Gators. In 2009, Florida stood among the top three for nine weeks in the national bar rankings. Two Gators advanced to the 2009 NCAA bar final, with then sophomore Alicia Goodwin sharing third overall – matching the second-highest UF bar finish in the program's history. All-America honors were earned by three Gator bar performers in 2010, with two advancing to the event final.

His peers recognized Burde as the 2007 National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for Women (NACGC) Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year. Last year, he shared the NACGC Southeast Region Assistant Coach of the Year honor with fellow Gator assistant Robert Ladanyi.

Burde joined UF in June of 2006 after working as an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska since 2001. At Nebraska, he served as the vault and floor coach and conditioning coordinator. While there, he was named the 2003 National Assistant Coach of the Year by the NACGC and the 2003 South Central Region Assistant Coach of the Year.

At Nebraska, Burde helped lead the Cornhuskers to four NCAA Super Six team finals (2002, '03, '05, '06). He saw NU athletes earn 19 All-America honors in the floor and vault events. It was at Nebraska that Burde coached Canadian Richelle Simpson, the 2003 NCAA all-around and floor exercise champion. He served as her coach at the 2003 World Championships in Anaheim, Calif., and the 2003 Pan American Games. Burde and UF Head Coach Rhonda Faehn both were members of the Nebraska coaching staff for the 2002 season.

Prior to working at Nebraska, Burde coached the girl's Level 10 and International Elite programs for the Bart Conner Gymnastics Academy in Norman, Okla. There, he coached U.S. National Team members Larissa Stewart and Lori Wynn.

Burde began his coaching career in his native Romania in 1994, where he was a Junior National team coach until 1999. He coached the Romanian Junior National Team with current UF Assistant Coach Robert Ladanyi. The two have known each other since their competitive gymnastic days.

Burde's international coaching experience is a great benefit to the Gators. He coached Romanian Alexandra Eremia from 1997-99, who later was a member of the 2004 Olympic gold medal team and was awarded the bronze medal on the balance beam. Burde also coached Florica Leonida during the same time, who along with Eremia, earned a team silver medal at the 2003 World Championships.

Burde was a member of the Romanian Junior National Team from 1988 to 1992. He joined the French club team Aix les Bains in 1992 and captured the all-around title at the 1994 French national meet. While competing, Burde also helped coach younger gymnasts at the club.

Burde is a 1996 graduate of the Romanian National School of Coaching, where he received a degree in International High Level Gymnastics.

He married the former Darcie Lee in the summer of 2007.

ASSISTANT COACHES

ROBERT LADANYI
ASSISTANT COACH

Robert Ladanyi (pronounced La-DA-knee) is in his seventh season as an assistant coach at Florida. He coaches the Gator uneven bar performers and also shares the team's conditioning coach duties.

Last year as the Gators' uneven bar coach, three additions were made the Gators' All-Time Top 20 scores list by a pair of freshmen (9.975 by Alaina Johnson and 9.95 by Mackenzie Caquatto and Johnson). Johnson advanced to the NCAA bars final, tying for sixth overall. During the course of the season, Florida ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 in the nation on the event, holding the top spot in eight of the 11 ranking periods.

Ladanyi coached vault and the team on their tumbling skills when he first joined the Gator coaching staff. The upgrade was immediately seen in his first season in 2006 as the Gators gained a reputation among the nation's collegiate programs for their difficulty throughout the floor lineup. Florida's 12 representatives from 2006-10 in NCAA floor exercise final competition is tops among the nation's gymnastics programs.

In 2008, Florida sent four to the NCAA floor final (Amanda Castillo, Corey Hartung, Ashley Reed and Nicola Willis) with Willis leading the Gators by cumulating her UF career with a third-place finish. Half of Florida's floor lineup earned All-America honors in 2006 and 2007, with Savannah Evans (2006 and 2007), Hartung (2006 and 2007) and Reed (2007) advancing to the NCAA Event Final. Hartung finished her UF career in 2009 by taking third in the NCAA floor final. A pair of Gator freshmen – Marissa King and Ashanée Dickerson advanced to the 2010 NCAA floor final.

The Gators also were successful in vault under Ladanyi's supervision. He saw seven additions to the program's all-time top-10 vault team totals list from 2007 to 2010. A Gator took at least a share of nine vault event titles during the course of the 2006 campaign. Two Gators advanced to the 2007 NCAA vault event final - Castillo and Evans. A Gator claimed at least a share of all but two 2008 regular-season vault titles and Reed won the Southeastern Conference and NCAA Southeast Region vault titles. In 2009, Florida gymnasts claimed five regular-season vault titles and Maranda Smith advanced to the NCAA vault final. King and Dickerson also represented UF in the 2010 NCAA vault final.

His peers recognized Ladanyi and fellow Gator assistant Adrian Burde as the 2011 National Association of Collegiate Gymnastics Coaches for Women (NACGC) Southeast Region Assistant Coaches of the Year.

Ladanyi came to UF from the Mihaiuc Gymnastics Academy (MGA) in Webster, Texas, where he had coached since 2002. Three gymnasts advanced to the National Junior Olympic Championships during his time at MGA. He also was an assistant coach at the Academy of Gymnastics and Dance in Las Vegas, Nev., in 2001-02.

Before coaching in the United States, Ladanyi was head coach of CSM in Baia Mare, Romania (1992-97). Part of his responsibilities included coaching the Romania Junior National team from 1994-97. Three gymnasts he coached were selected for the 1999 Romanian Senior National team, while Monica Sabou was the alternate for the 2001 Romanian World Team. Ladanyi then left his native Romania to become the head coach at S.G. Amsicora in Cagliari, Italy from 1997-01.

Ladanyi graduated from the Romanian National School of Coaching in 1994 with a degree in International High Level Gymnastics. He trained with the Romanian National Team where he was an all-around competitor who excelled in parallel bars and rings before an injury forced him to retire from competition at age 19.

Ladanyi has two daughters, Gabriella, who was born in December of 2004 and Laila, who arrived in May of 2009. Gabby is an aspiring gymnast herself, taking the 2011 Texas South Level 4 state all-around, vault, uneven bars and balance beam titles.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Jeremy Miranda
VOLUNTEER COACH

Volunteer Assistant Coach Jeremy Miranda will provide his innovative and artistic touch to the Gator gymnastics routines again this season. Miranda oversees all creative aspects (music and choreography) with regard to the floor routines.

Prior to joining the Gator program in the summer of 2007, Miranda was the University of Nebraska women's gymnastics team manager for the 2006 and 2007 seasons. While at Nebraska, he choreographed multiple floor routines, as well as assisted the coaching staff with various duties. In addition, Miranda also served as a club coach for the Nebraska School of Gymnastics from 2005-07, coaching a vast array of classes ranging from preschool to level 10. Miranda has also spent several summers as a master staff instructor at the world-renowned Woodward Gymnastics Camp in Woodward, Pa. Miranda has served on the coaching staff at other various summer camps and clinics across the country, including the University of Florida Camp, University of Georgia Camp and the University of Nebraska Camp.

A notable gymnast in his own right, Miranda was a level 10 gymnast who trained dually in Chamberlain, S.D., as well as at Horizon's Gymnastics Academy in Port Charlotte, Fla. In 2005, Miranda culminated his gymnastics career with a co-national championship finish on the floor exercise at Junior Olympic Nationals, as well as an eighth-place finish on the vault.

A native of Chamberlain, S.D., Miranda attended the University of Nebraska as a Chancellor's Leadership Honors Scholar from 2005-07 where he satisfied all general education requirements. He received his bachelor's degree in Dance Performance from the University of Florida in the summer of 2010. Miranda has one sister, Jennifer (23), and one brother, Joshua (21). His mother, Bernie, works as the head Postmaster in Oacoma, S.D., and his father, Tom, is a professional hunter featured regularly on ESPN Outdoors.

Caquatto, or "Macko," started gymnastics when she was 2. But she really fell in love with gymnastics during the 1996 Olympics — when it went from a pastime to a goal-setting drive. Her proudest moment so far is going to the 2010 World Championships in the Netherlands. Her younger sister is also a future Gator (Bridgette joins Gator team in fall of 2012) who keeps her motivated and grounded. She loves her mom's spaghetti, as part of her father's 100-percent Sicilian heritage. One of her competitions took her to Venice, which she loved. Her competitions have taken her all over the world, but she longs to visit Australia.

The two-time NCAA Southeast Region Gymnast of the Year remembers watching Gator gymnastics meets since she was 8 years old. Performing in front of loud, large crowds—Dickerson idolized the gymnasts she saw. Now living the dream, she says performing on the mat is ten times better than cheering in the stands. Keeps in touch with the young gymnasts from her club, who may also dream of one day competing in the O'Connell Center. She prefers taking pictures versus signing autographs because it takes her longer to sign her name. Born and raised a short drive away in Jacksonville, she says the best thing about the annual Florida-Georgia football game is tailgating.

People always ask Ellis, being from Naperville, Ill., if she's been to Chicago. She has, and she loves the city's atmosphere and shopping. Coming from a family of nine, life can be hectic at times and family dinners involving everyone are a rarity. Her favorite meal is lasagna. She credits her club coach and qualifying for Junior Olympic Nationals as breaking through her mental barrier—when she gained more confidence in herself and her abilities. She does her best work at night when most distractions are gone, or asleep. Her "hands-down" favorite TV show is Grey's Anatomy, a love originally fostered out of dreams of becoming a doctor.

Ferguson, originally from Halifax in Nova Scotia, Canada, used to spend her days on Citadel Hill where her and her siblings would play around in the fortress at the top of the hill. She doesn't say "eh," but her dad still does. A big hockey fan, she roots for the Toronto Maple Leafs and Tampa Bay Lightning. Growing up and calling soda "pop," it took Ferguson a little while to get into the habit of calling soda, "soda." Kytra was ready to commit to the Gators when the plane touched down in Florida and she saw palm trees. An added bonus? All the orange she could wear – her favorite color. You can't miss Kytra when she rides her black scooter, which she personally designed with bright pink flames and skulls. Traveled in 2009 with her Gator teammate Mackenzie Caquatto to France with Team USA. Hooked on seafood and sushi, but don't even think about giving her Brussels sprouts.

The parents of the 2011 Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Year started her on gymnastics as a change of pace from her older siblings, all soccer players. It was love at first tumbling pass. Johnson took a break from the mat and uneven bars to swim, but ultimately gymnastics won out. Johnson was home-schooled from fourth through eighth grade and said it was nice being on her own schedule. What happened on June 13, 2008? Well, in Tyler, Texas, the mayor declared that date "Alaina Johnson Day" after she earned a spot in the U.S. Olympic Trials. Loves going to Lake Tyler with her friends where they tube, knee board and, of course, tan.

While the Stephen O'Connell Center is now home to King, the former Olympian cited the O2 Arena in London and the Beijing National Stadium—home of the 2008 Summer Olympics—as her other favorite gym venues. She received a best of luck phone call from her mother in England the morning she won the 2011 NCAA vault title. She loves ice cream, any sort. While she has spanned the globe following her gymnastics aspirations, she still wants to visit New York City and Las Vegas. GYMNASTICS SCORING

In collegiate team competition, six gymnasts perform on each of the four apparatus. The five best scores per event are added together to make up the cumulative team total.

At least two judges are required to evaluate an athlete's performance. Choices of elements "up to the competition level" are defined by basic requirements for each event. The scores are averaged to arrive at a final mark.

GENERAL DEDUCTIONS

Fall from apparatus or on floor	0.5
Stepping out of bounds (floor exercise)	0.1
Heavy brush of feet, or hand touch on floor	0.3
Presentation to judge omitted (before or after exercise)	0.1
Intermediate swing (bars)	0.3
Concentration pauses longer than two seconds	0.1
Coach blocking judges' view	0.2
Competing out of order (taken from the team score)	0.1
"Up to the competition level" deduction	0.1

Other deductions are taken, usually up to and no more than 0.3, for such things as bent arms and legs, or separation of legs.

VAULT

Vaulting requires speed, quickness and explosive power. Vaults are divided into three categories: handspring, Tsukahara and round-off entry. Deductions are taken for technical errors in the areas of preflight (approach to the horse) and after flight (distance and height) from the horse to point of landing.

2012 Gator Vaults

Vault/Gymnasts	Value
Yurchenko layout with full twist: Ashanée Dickerson, Mackenzie Caquatto, Nicole Ellis, Alaina Johnson, Dali Lemezan, Lauren Rose, Jamie Shisler, Rachel Spicer, Randy Stageberg, Kiersten Wang	10.0
Yurchenko layout with one and a half twist: Ashanée Dickerson, Kytra Hunter, Rachel Spicer	10.0
Tsukahara layout with full twist: Marissa King	10.0
Tsukahara layout with 1 ½ twist: Marissa King	10.0

Gymnastics skills are divided into different categories (A,B,C,D,E), with E containing the exceptionally difficult skills. An asterisk denotes E-level skills (*).

UNEVEN BARS

At least two elements must be on the low bar. Good composition includes elements showing great amplitude, several bar changes, grip changes and direction changes. Pauses for concentration, intermediate swings and uncharacteristic elements are to be avoided. After a fall, the gymnast must resume the exercise within 30 seconds.

Gators to Watch in 2012:

Mackenzie Caquatto: Shaposhnikova, bail handstand, Tkatchev, full out dismount

Ashanée Dickerson: Hindorff*, toe on toe off, bail to handstand, double layout dismount*

Rachel Spicer: Tkatchev, giant full, bail to handstand, full out dismount

Kiersten Wang: Free hip, Tkatchev to immediate bail, double layout dismount*

Jade Wiggins: Giant blind Jaeger, bail to handstand, double layout dismount*

BALANCE BEAM

The beam routine should be composed of elements from the following groups: acrobatic elements with and without flight, strength elements such as turns, leaps, body waves and running steps. Special requirements of this event are an acrobatic series, a gymnastics series, a full turn and a leap.

The balance beam is 16 feet long, four feet high and only four inches wide. The entire routine must last between 30 seconds and one and a half minutes. A bell is rung at the 1:20 mark of the routine. If the gymnast does not complete the routine at the end of one and a half minutes, an overtime penalty of .10 is deducted from the score. There is no undertime deduction. Requirements for the beam (failure to complete requirements results in .2 start value deduction) include:

1) Acro series: Minimum of two (2) flight elements, one element must be a minimum of C with or without hand support (both elements must start and finish on the beam).

2) Dance series with a minimum of two (2) elements, one element C or higher.

3) A leap or jump requiring 180 degree split (this may be part of the dance series).

4) Minimum of 360 degree turn. No hand support permitted.

5) Minimum of C dismount or B dismount proceeded by and directly connected to any C element (acro or dance).

Jade Wiggins: Flip flop one arm into Gainer layout, front aerial to back tuck Gainer, full twist dismount

Kiersten Wang: Cat leap into front aerial, flip flop layout step out into full twist dismount

FLOOR EXERCISE

The composition of the exercise must show harmony between gymnastics and acrobatic elements, create dynamic changes in rhythm and levels and show versatile use of the entire floor area. The exercise must contain two different acrobatic series and one series must contain at least two saltos. The musical accompaniment is to be instrumental only. The exercise must last between 1:10 and 1:30 minutes. The "competition level" for floor exercise are defined by the basic standards (failure to meet competition level is a .10 deduction):

1) One acro series with two (2) saltos (same or different).

2) Three different saltos within the exercise.

3) Dance series with a minimum of two (2) elements (leaps - one must be off of one foot that includes a 180 degree split; jumps)

4) One tumbling pass with a D salto or higher

5) An acro dismount with a C in bonus combination OR a minimum of a D skill

2011 GATOR GYMNASTICS SEASON REVIEW

Feb. 20

It was a quick turnaround for the No. 1 Gator gymnastics team, who claimed the West Virginia quad meet title just two days after facing No. 22 Auburn in Gainesville. The Gators took the title with a total of 196.875 while West Virginia (195.225), New Hampshire (194.40) and George Washington (193.05) rounded out the results. The gymnasts posted solid scores to take wins in three events. Freshman Mackenzie Caquatto used collegiate-best marks to take both the uneven bars (9.925) and balance beam (9.975) titles, and sophomores Ashanée Dickerson and Marissa King shared the floor crown with scores of 9.875.

Feb. 25

No. 15 Arkansas handed No. 1 Florida its first loss of the season in the Barnhill Arena in Fayetteville, Ark. The Razorbacks defeated the Gators 196.70-196.10 to end Florida's undefeated season. Breaks in each of Florida's first three events led to a tie heading into the final rotation. The Gators needed a strong balance beam set to put themselves in position to challenge for the team title, but misses by two performers forced the Gators to count a fall toward its team total for the first time of the season. Still, Florida was able to claim at least a share of three of the meet's event titles, with Ashanée Dickerson collecting vault (9.925) and floor (9.90) wins, and Mackenzie Caquatto claiming the uneven bars (9.925) title.

March 4

No. 1 Florida finished its 2011 regular-season schedule with a 197.00-196.75 win at No. 5 Utah in front of an NCAA record Jon M. Huntsman Center crowd of 15,558. Florida led the meet from the opening event, but its biggest lead of 0.250 was at the midway point. Heading into the final rotation, that lead was narrowed to just 0.150. The Gators sealed the win with a six-for-six beam set. The vault event featured three Gators (Ashanée Dickerson, Alaina Johnson and Marissa King) sharing the top spot at 9.90 with Utah's Gael Mackie. Johnson also shared a 9.925 uneven bars win with fellow freshman Mackenzie Caquatto, and Dickerson shared first on balance beam at 9.875 with Utah's Cortni Beers and Fumina Kobayashi.

March 19

Trouble on its middle two events kept No. 1 Florida from defending its Southeastern Conference title at the Birmingham-Jefferson Convention Center crowd (8,025). No. 2 Alabama took the 2011 SEC crown with a final total of 197.225. Florida was second at 196.975. No. 8 Georgia took third (196.625), followed by No. 12 Arkansas (195.80), No. 19 LSU (195.475), No. 22 Auburn (195.325) and Kentucky (193.95).

2011 GATOR GYMNASTICS SEASON REVIEW

Florida opened the competition with a solid uneven bars set of 49.25, which ended as the meet's high total on the event. On the balance beam, senior Alicia Goodwin anchored the lineup with a collegiate-best 9.90, tying for second overall. Ashanée Dickerson claimed a share of the SEC floor title with her mark of 9.925, while Maranda Smith and Alaina Johnson each posted a 9.90 to share third overall. Florida led all teams with its 49.375 total on floor. Three Gators shared a team-high 9.90 on the vault – Nicole Ellis, Marissa King and Dickerson – to place them in an eight-way tie for second in the final vault standings.

In the annual post-meet awards ceremony, Johnson was awarded the SEC Freshman of the Year award, and Rhonda Faehn received her second consecutive SEC Coach of the Year award. Dickerson and Johnson were named to the All-SEC first team, and Ellis, Goodwin, King and Smith were all named to the All-SEC second team.

April 2

The slenderest of margins gave No. 1 Florida the second NCAA Championships' qualifying spot, as the team turned in a 196.425 to take second at the NCAA North Central Regional in Denver's Magness Arena. No. 12 Arkansas won its second regional title at 196.55 to take the other NCAA berth. Other team results included No. 18 Boise State (196.40), No. 19 Denver (195.625), No. 20 Arizona (195.40) and No. 27 BYU (194.65). Three marks of 9.90 or better helped the Gators post a season-best 49.475 on the uneven bars. Freshman Mackenzie Caquatto picked up her fourth bar win with a collegiate-best 9.95, while Alaina Johnson was second at 9.925 and Ashanée Dickerson equaled her collegiate-best of 9.90 for the second time in the season to share third overall. Dickerson and Johnson posted 9.90s to share first on vault, and Johnson also picked up Florida's second consecutive NCAA North Central Region all-around title with her total of 39.525.

April 15

A tenth of a point kept the No. 5 seeded Gators from advancing to its sixth consecutive NCAA Super Six team championship, as UF took fourth in NCAA Championships' Semifinal II competition at Cleveland's Wolstein Center. Eventual NCAA champion Alabama won semifinal II at 197.05. Nebraska (196.85) and Utah (196.20) also move ahead with top three finishes. Florida struggled in its opening event, balance beam, where the Gators were forced to count a miss toward its team total. UF led all teams with a 49.45 on floor exercise and also turned in strong totals of 49.25 (vault) and 49.30 (uneven bars), but couldn't quite make up the gap, posting a final 196.125. Oregon State (196.10) and Kent State (195.00) rounded out the Semifinal II results.

April 17

In the championships' individual competition, sophomore Marissa King claimed the 2011 NCAA vault title, becoming the second Gator to win vault and first to win an NCAA event crown since 1998. King was one of three Gators in the individual event finals. Senior Maranda Smith shared second in the floor exercise final at 9.90, and freshman Alaina Johnson advanced to three finals. She tied for fifth on floor (9.8875), tied for sixth for the bars (9.85) and shared ninth for vault (9.7875). Her appearances in three NCAA event finals matches Florida's record set by Betsy Hamm in 1998. King also competed in the floor final, sharing ninth at 9.85. Johnson (vault, uneven bars, floor), King (vault, floor) and Smith (floor) were each named to the All-America team for their performances. Ashanée Dickerson also earned All-America second-team honors on balance beam, floor exercise and all-around.

#Individual event scores determined by adding team and individual competition scores together

@ - 1993 marked the first year of a two-day format of team competition. The top six teams from the first day advance to the "Super Six" competition.
Since 1999, the top four finishers (plus ties) from each of the NCAA two sessions of team competition earn All-America first-team honors and advance to the individual event finals. Finishers in the No. 5-8 spots (including ties) in each of the team competition sessions are second team All-Americans. From 1993-98, the top eight individuals in NCAA team competition earn All-America first-team honors; the next eight earn All-America second-team honors. Prior to 1993, only the top eight finishers from the NCAA event finals earned All-America honors.

* - denotes All-America second team
^ - IG denotes International Gymnast

Since 1999, the top four finishers (plus ties) from each of the NCAA's two sessions of team competition earn All-America first-team honors and advance to the individual event finals. Finishers in the No. 5-8 spot (including ties) in each of the team competition sessions are second team All-Americans. From 1993-98, the top eight individuals in NCAA team competition (results from both sessions combined) earned All-America first-team honors; the next eight earned All-America second-team honors. Prior to 1993, only the top eight finishers from the NCAA event finals earned All-America honors.

GATORS LINK TO PINK

As part of a Southeastern Conference initiative, the Feb. 10 triangular meet is the sixth annual Gators Link to Pink event, where all teams will wear pink leotards in support of the fight against breast cancer. Last year's event raised over $5,000 for the local American Cancer Society chapter in Gainesville.

GATOR GYMNASTICS FAN SUPPORT

Florida is nationally recognized as a hotbed of collegiate gymnastics. The crowds are getting bigger each year at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center, with the Gators averaging more than 6,100 fans per meet in 2011 -- the nation's fourth-highest attendance average and the third-highest season average in the program's history.

Half of the program's top six crowds have come in the last four years. The 2008 regular-season dual meet featuring then No. 1 Florida versus No. 2 Georgia drew a Gator gymnastics record crowd of 10,855. The 2010 Gators Link to Pink meet versus LSU drew the program's third-largest crowd of 9,198. The 2011 Gators Link to Pink meet drew the program's overall fifth-largest crowd (8,272). Florida's strong fan base played a big role in the Gators being awarded the 2010 NCAA Gymnastics Championships. The Gators will play host to NCAA action again in 2013 when the NCAA Southeast Region Championships are held in the O'Connell Center.

TOP 10 GYMNASTICS CROWDS

Crowd	Opponent	Date
10,855	Georgia	1-18-08
10,651	Alabama	2-10-89
9,198	Gators Link to Pink versus LSU	1-29-10
8,338	Georgia	1-27-06
8,272	Gators Link to Pink versus Penn State and NC State	1-28-11
8,119	Super Six Challenge	1-7-05
8,019	Gators Link to Pink versus Kentucky	1-30-09
7,486	NCAA Gymnastics Championships (event finals)	4-19-86
7,329	NCAA Gymnastics Championships (team)	4-18-86
7,047	Alabama	2-20-09

The size of O'Connell Center gymnastics crowds continue to swell since the arrival of Rhonda Faehn for the 2003 season.

"When I was growing up, I came to Gator gymnastics meets and I thought about how exciting it must be to have the crowd cheering for you. Now that I am a Gator gymnast, the experience of competing in front of the O'Connell Center crowd is far better than I ever imagined. To come out of the Gator head and be greeted by the crowd is an incredible feeling. The support the Gator fans show really helps us perform. Thank you Gator fans!"

-Ashanée Dickerson

The Gators drew a program-record 10,855 fans for the 2008 dual meet featuring then-No. 1 Florida and No. 2 Georgia.

The Rumblin' Tumblin' Reptiles is the Gator gymnastics team's student-booster group.

Fan interest has been growing for Gator gymnastics since the arrival of Rhonda Faehn for the 2003 season, with the team's average attendance growing tremendously during her tenure. Florida averaged more than 6,100 per meet in 2011, the nation's fourth-highest attendance average and the third-highest average in the program's 39-year history.
